Suzanne Collins delivers a powerful follow-up to her New York Times and USA Today bestselling novel, The Hunger Games with Catching Fire. Combining equal parts suspense and philosophy, adventure and romance, The Hunger Games trilogy is set in a future with unsettling parallels to our present.

Catching Fire continues the story of sixteen-year-old Katniss Everdeen and her fellow District 12 tribute Peeta Mellark, after they have managed to win the annual Hunger Games against all odds. Katniss, Peeta, and their families should be happy. After all, they have secured a life of safety and plenty with their triumph. But it was a victory won by defiance of the Capital and their harsh rules. Now there are rumors of rebellion among the other districts, and to her horror, Katniss and Peeta are the faces of that rebellion. The Capitol is angry. The Capitol wants revenge. The Capitol will not be fooled again.

Suzanne Collins is the author of the New York Times bestselling Underland Chronicles series, which has more than one million books in print and is available in seven foreign editions. In the award-winning The Hunger Games, for which rights have been sold for 35 foreign language editions to date, Collins continues to explore the effects of war and violence on those coming of age. Also a successful writer for children’s television, Collins lives with her family in Connecticut.
